

Basic requirements:
$\hfill\square$ An adequate supply of insulin (leave it in the original packaging. Transport and store it according to the manufacturer's instructions)
☐ Blood glucose meter and lancing device as well as sufficient accessories such as test strips, lancets and spare batteries for the meter (also for the spare meter)
☐ Ketone test strips and regimen for the treatment of ketoacidosis
Sufficient glucose for an emergency
Cooling bag for insulin and blood glucose test strips
Letter from your doctor certifying diabetic needs (issued by your doctor)
□ Diabetic ID card in English or in the language of the holiday destination including personal address data
□ Treatment plan (showing insulin doses and correction factors)□ Treatment for hypoglycemia
□ Diabetes diary
□ Address and telephone number of the supervising diabetes team and/or your travel health insurance company
☐ Instructions for use of the products for reference
Also important for users of insulin pens:
☐ Insulin pen(s), including spare pens
☐ Sufficient pen needles
Also important for insulin pump therapy:
☐ Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday
☐ Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday
 ☐ Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday ☐ Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges
 ☐ Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday ☐ Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges ☐ Sufficient infusion sets (note: possible increased need for beach holidays)
 □ Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday □ Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges □ Sufficient infusion sets (note: possible increased need for beach holidays) □ Agent for disinfecting the puncture site (note: do not use refattening agents)
 □ Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday □ Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges □ Sufficient infusion sets (note: possible increased need for beach holidays) □ Agent for disinfecting the puncture site (note: do not use refattening agents) □ Single-use syringes for an emergency
 Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges Sufficient infusion sets (note: possible increased need for beach holidays) Agent for disinfecting the puncture site (note: do not use refattening agents) Single-use syringes for an emergency Insulin pen and pen needles as replacement
 Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges Sufficient infusion sets (note: possible increased need for beach holidays) Agent for disinfecting the puncture site (note: do not use refattening agents) Single-use syringes for an emergency Insulin pen and pen needles as replacement Carrying systems
 Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges Sufficient infusion sets (note: possible increased need for beach holidays) Agent for disinfecting the puncture site (note: do not use refattening agents) Single-use syringes for an emergency Insulin pen and pen needles as replacement Carrying systems Extra plasters for affixing the infusion set
 Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges Sufficient infusion sets (note: possible increased need for beach holidays) Agent for disinfecting the puncture site (note: do not use refattening agents) Single-use syringes for an emergency Insulin pen and pen needles as replacement Carrying systems
 Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges Sufficient infusion sets (note: possible increased need for beach holidays) Agent for disinfecting the puncture site (note: do not use refattening agents) Single-use syringes for an emergency Insulin pen and pen needles as replacement Carrying systems Extra plasters for affixing the infusion set Pump settings (basal rates, IC ratio, correction factors etc.)
 Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges Sufficient infusion sets (note: possible increased need for beach holidays) Agent for disinfecting the puncture site (note: do not use refattening agents) Single-use syringes for an emergency Insulin pen and pen needles as replacement Carrying systems Extra plasters for affixing the infusion set
 □ Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday □ Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges □ Sufficient infusion sets (note: possible increased need for beach holidays) □ Agent for disinfecting the puncture site (note: do not use refattening agents) □ Single-use syringes for an emergency □ Insulin pen and pen needles as replacement □ Carrying systems □ Extra plasters for affixing the infusion set □ Pump settings (basal rates, IC ratio, correction factors etc.) If you are planning to have a break from your insulin pump therapy during holidays: □ Treatment plan
 Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges Sufficient infusion sets (note: possible increased need for beach holidays) Agent for disinfecting the puncture site (note: do not use refattening agents) Single-use syringes for an emergency Insulin pen and pen needles as replacement Carrying systems Extra plasters for affixing the infusion set Pump settings (basal rates, IC ratio, correction factors etc.) If you are planning to have a break from your insulin pump therapy during holidays:
 Your own insulin pump (and possibly a holiday pump/replacement pump) – the mylife™ YpsoPump® holiday pump should be ordered with enough lead time, preferably approx. 3 weeks before starting your holiday Accessories such as batteries, empty cartridges Sufficient infusion sets (note: possible increased need for beach holidays) Agent for disinfecting the puncture site (note: do not use refattening agents) Single-use syringes for an emergency Insulin pen and pen needles as replacement Carrying systems Extra plasters for affixing the infusion set Pump settings (basal rates, IC ratio, correction factors etc.) If you are planning to have a break from your insulin pump therapy during holidays: Treatment plan Distinguishable insulin pens for bolus and basal insulin and pen needles

Tip: It is better to take too much of everything with you than too little. Place your orders early.

